“THE VIEW FROM 524”

From the Senior Manager, Joan Campbell, CPM

Dear Residents,

Seasons Greetings from the team at Westminster House Apartments!! We wish you a joyous Holiday Season, and hopes for a New Year filled with good health and happiness. We hope that everyone who participated in the Complimentary Thanksgiving Meal Pick up, enjoyed their dinner. We hope we were able to make Thanksgiving pleasant.

LIBRARY AND COMMON AREAS MUSIC & NOISE

Please remember when you are in the library and common areas (especially near the front desk) you should not have your radio playing, or cellphone on speaker phone. If you are listening to music on your phone, please use your earbuds or headphones. No phone calls should be taken on speaker phone (this is for your privacy, as well as to not disturb other residents in the library or common areas)

HANGING ITEMS ON YOUR APARTMENT DOORS

Please remember you can not put nails, tacks, staples, scotch tape or any other item on your doors to hang anything. The only thing you can use is a door hanger that goes over top of your door (or a Command Hook- Scotch Brand) to hang wreaths or holiday decorations. We will be monitoring the hallways to make sure that no one is violating this rule.

EMPLOYEE DOORS

Please do not knock on the apartment doors for employees. If you are looking for a team member and it is after hours, please do not go directly to their apartments. Maintenance Emergencies need to be reported to the FRONT DESK. If you are looking for another team member and they are not working, they are not to be disturbed.
